Volleyball At Halfway Point

We've reached the halfway point in the majority of the Lancaster Parks & Recreation Department's adult volleyball leagues. With the largest lead in any division being seven games, the second half of the season should prove to be very interesting.

Two teams showing the way at this point include Eric Szplyman's Ellicott Manor in Men's "A" and Shirley Sutton's Fireside Inn in Women's "B1" who lead their respective divisions.

Men's League

Tuesday Night League: Our division leaders, Green Buffalo Pub-Batt continues to roll with a three-zero sweep of the Attack. Fireside Inn-Bitterman stays on the heels of the leaders with their three-zip sweep of Fireside Inn-Zeigler. The Dawgs are two games back of the leaders in third after they disposed of Magruders three-zero. Fireside Inn-Kraus goes to .500 for the year with a two to one win over the Green Buffalo Pub Explorers.

Men's "A" League: The division leading Ellicott Manor has a good evening in subduing Good Tymes two to one. Frank's is a game out of fourth after a two to one win over Magruders. Fireside Inn is slowing moving up the standings after a two to one win over Bump Set and Chug.

Men's "B" League: The division leader Chucksters have a struggle before defeating Fireside Inn-Beltz two to one. Green Buffalo Pub-Kicak gains in the division with a three to zero sweep of Green Buffalo Pub-Sledz.

Women's League

"A" League: Frank's-Weber stays in first with a convincing three to zero win over Green Buffalo Pub. Ellicott Manor is four games back of the leaders with their three to zero sweep of the Polish Falcons. Bugmasters LLC pulls into a tie for the final playoff spot with a two to one win over Fassel's Upholstering.

"B1" League: Fireside Inn-Sutton remain in first after a two to one conquest of Frank's-Rudz. Tony's Secretaries creates a logjam for second with a two to one win over Smith's Gun Shop. Fireside Inn-Piccolo join the fray in second with after a three to zero sweep of Maryan's. Fireside Inn-Giglia is lurking in fifth as they took care of Fireside Inn-Terranova two to one.

"B2" League: In a battle for first, Hubert's Auto Service takes top spot with a two to one win over Fireside Inn-Schalberg. Frank's-Retzer holds down the final playoff spot after a two to one win over the Basil Ford Outlaws.

"C" League: With the division leader Spinoffs idle, the rest of the division had a chance to play catch-up. The Desperate Housewives make a huge jump with a three to zero win over Home Improvement Council of WNY as Jill Greco and Linda Witt paced the winners. Hit & Run move four games back of the division leaders as Sarah Walker and Jane Quiram led them to a two to one win over CLC & Co. Donna Gangloff and Kristie May starred in the Villagers two to one win over Berghold & Son's Electric, while the Nite Crew takes two of three from Michael's.

Co-Ed League: Our division leading Nuts and Bolts put the hammer to the metal in a three-zero sweep of Green Buffalo Pub-Mary Kremer. Green Buffalo Pub-Jessica Kremer has a strong evening with a three-zero sweep of Fireside Inn. The Ball Hogs also enjoy a good evening with a two-one win over LHSMD.
